

WOOLLY NOMINATED

For the Presidency by the National Prohibition Convention.

EDITOR OF "THE VOICE."

Was a Soldier, Lawyer and Editor, and Has Been a Fighter in the "Dry" Battle—Much Enthusiasm Manifested by the Supporters of Cold Water.

CHICAGO, June 28.—John G. Woolly, of Illinois, was nominated for President by the National Prohibitionists on the first ballot.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 28.—The attendance at the Prohibition national convention to-day was much larger than yesterday. The galleries of the First regiment armory were thronged when Chairman Dickie rapped the convention to order at 10 a. m., while the number of delegates had been increased considerably by arrivals from the more remote states.

It was the general expectation that the nominations for President and Vice President would be made before noon, and that a final adjournment would be reached before 2 o'clock this afternoon. After a brief prayer by Rev. C. H. Mead, of New Jersey, Chairman Johann, of the committee on credentials, made a supplementary report, showing additional arrivals of thirty-nine delegates. The total number of delegates present was 730, representing forty states. On account of the total failure of Chairman Dickie's voice, A. G. Wolfenbarger, of Nebraska, took the chair.

Chairman Wolfenbarger recognized National Chairman Oliver W. Stewart, who, in a speech of some length, outlined the work of the national committee during the last four years, and the work as contemplated for the coming campaign.

Mr. Stewart concluded with a plea for funds to conduct the campaign, which it is intended shall be on a more extensive scale than the party has ever before attempted. Several thousand dollars were subscribed by the delegates and visitors.

Nominations for the presidency were then in order, but this was postponed for a short time, and Colonel Brewer, of the Salvation Army, was then introduced.

He made an eloquent plea for the cause of prohibition, and was enthusiastically cheered when he took his seat.

"The roll of states will now be called for nominations for President," announced Chairman Wolfenbarger.

"Illinois has two candidates for the presidency," announced a delegate. Amid much applause National Chairman Oliver W. Stewart was recognized to place John G. Woolly in nomination.

Upon the announcement of Woolly's name by Mr. Stewart apparently half the delegates arose, waved flags and cheered wildly.

George W. Gore, of Illinois, then took the floor to renominate Hale Johnson, saying:

"He was a soldier. So were his father and grandfather. So is his son. His war record is clear. In 1875 he became a lawyer—an honest lawyer, (laughter). Not only must we have an erator of ability, but we must have a man of business affairs, and of constitutional ability, so he can call down the attorney general when he nullifies the canteen law.

"For years he has been a fighter in the ranks of prohibition, for God and home and native land. He is a courageous Christian citizen, as grand a man as lives beneath the sun is Hale Johnson." (Great applause.)

Homer L. Castle, of Pittsburgh, pale and slender, then took the platform, amid the applause of the friends of Dr. Swallow to nominate the Pennsylvania divine.

Mr. Castle's three denunciations of former Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, was received with delight by the delegates. As Mr. Castle concluded the most striking demonstration of the day occurred. Every delegate in the Pennsylvania section, with his hands full of gaily-colored pampas plumes, or with large pictures of Dr. Swallow, jumped to his feet, shouting wildly, while in other sections of the hall delegates blew horns and waved the state banners. The demonstration continued for several minutes, and apparently came near to stampeding the convention.

The roll call of states was then concluded, no further nominations being made.

Mr. Woolly was nominated on the first ballot.

CENTRAL COUNTIES

Of Braxton, Nicholas and Webster Teeming With Untold Wealth of Minerals and Forests—Republicans Are Rapidly Gaining Ground. About the Candidates.

Special Correspondence of Intelligencer. WEBSTER COUNTY, W. Va., June 27.—A sojourn of many days in the counties of Braxton, Nicholas and Webster, has enabled me to see the drift of political sentiment in the community, and fairly judge to what extent the variously mentioned and proposed candidates for different state offices can rely upon the people for support at the November election.

The Republicans in the counties named, almost to a man, favor the nomination of the Hon. A. B. White, of Parkersburg, for governor, and it is not likely that any probable or possible addition or change of candidates will materially effect the vote of these people. Even the two contesting factions in Braxton county harmonize on White, while on local and county representatives they will waste their strength and destroy their usefulness in petty factional feuds.

Ball Far in the Lead.

For auditor of state, James K. Hall, of Wheeling, is far in the lead, and will remain there so far, at least, as the efforts of the other candidates are concerned or effect the situation.

This is the nativity and the home of the Hon. Jacob S. Hyer, and naturally he has a faithful and strong following, at least locally. That his friends will be able to spring a late boom in his favor for auditor is not probable, owing, chiefly, to the fact, established by custom, that two prominent state officials cannot be taken from the same congressional district or county, and as Alexander Duling, esq., of Sutton, is a full-fledged, popular and promising candidate for attorney general of the state, Hyer could not go before the state convention as a candidate for auditor and leave any standing room for his equally popular fellow townsman. Duling is an able, active and influential attorney, while no better party worker can be found in the Republican ranks throughout the state.

Duling Entitled to Recognition.

Colonel Duling is fully entitled to substantial recognition by the Republican party of West Virginia, as he withdrew from the Democratic ranks solely in principle, when the party controlled the offices of Braxton county by a majority of 800 votes, and could and would have been given any position within the scope of its influence and power. A few more such changes of party affiliation would effectually and permanently revolutionize the political power in Braxton county, as the fusion Democracy can only depend upon an uncertain and fluctuating plurality of some 300 or 400 votes at this time.

Telling on the Democracy.

The vast lumber interests of Webster and Nicholas counties are attracting men from the north and east many of whom acquire citizenship, and this is telling upon long-standing Democracy. And in a few years this influx of immigration will have wiped out Democratic majorities in these and other similarly situated counties stocked with great natural wealth.

Prosperity can be recognized when seen and felt as a tangible reality. Consequently, when all applicants find ready employment at good wages, which is the case at the extensive lumber plants, there is a general disposition manifested by the employees to "let well enough alone." This laudable class will do, and to further facilitate matters it will be found that about nine-tenths of the laborers and all of the capitalists and operators will vote the straight Republican ticket, thus taking no chances as to the future. G. F. T.

DR. WIER ELECTED

President of the West Virginia Conference Seminary on the Twenty-second Ballot—State Epworth League Officers Elected.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BUCKHANNON, W. Va., June 28.—The address of Governor Atkinson before the state Epworth League was a masterful oration, and a large crowd greeted the governor, and he had the attention of his audience throughout.

At to-day's session many novel features were introduced. An inquest was held at 9 o'clock, the president acting as coroner, the delegates, the jury and witnesses. A cablegram meeting was held in the afternoon, many excellent papers being read and regular committees reported. The committee on place of meeting left the selection to the executive committee.

State Officers Elected.

The election of officers for next year resulted as follows: President, H. C. Compton, Grafton; vice president, W. F. Kendall, Fetterman; second vice president, Roy Reger, Huntington; fourth vice president, Miss Estella McNash, Wheeling; secretary, W. Frank Stout, Clarksburg; treasurer, Miss Jessie Trotter, Buckhannon. The convention adjourned to-night.

Dr. John Wier, of Woodfield, Ohio, was elected president of West Virginia Conference Seminary to succeed Rev. S. L. Boyers, resigned. Among the candidates for the presidency were Rev. W. J. Harkness, of Wheeling; Rev. F. S. Townsend, of Parkersburg; Rev. A. Cameron, presiding elder of the Parkersburg district; Rev. R. B. Ward, of Oakland, Md., and Rev. Morris, of Lynn, Mass. Dr. Wier was elected on the twenty-second ballot. He is a graduate of Oxford, England and a half score of colleges and universities in this country. He has had a successful experience in school work, having been at the head of a missionary school in Japan for seven years and president of Scio college, of Ohio, for several years.

FAULKNER A CANDIDATE

Says One of His Friends, for His Old Job.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 28.—Hon. Charles James Faulkner, at one time a senator from this state, who was here yesterday, acting as special counsel for the government in the "Merry World" tobacco case, was seen by your correspondent and asked his opinion of the political situation. He declared that he believed West Virginia would return to the Democratic fold, though he himself "was out of politics," and was attending to his law business alone. He stated that he "might conclude to take a hand in politics later," though he would not admit that, in case the state went his way, that he would be a candidate for the senate. Regardless of this, one of his most intimate personal friends said that he believed Mr. Faulkner would again make a fight for the position, should the Democrats win. The fact that Faulkner did not attend the Democratic state convention here created some comment at the time, but it was said that he would not again be a candidate for public office, and that he was closely engaged in attending to his practice, which was taken as a sufficient excuse. Should he conclude to make a fight for the senatorship, however, he might give Mr. McGraw something of a surprise.

Strong Suspicion of Child Murder.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 28.—Henry Buckley complained to the police yesterday that the child of a woman named Kate Foley had disappeared immediately after birth. Chief of Police Cook sent an officer to investigate, and the facts were found as stated, though the woman claimed the infant had been taken to the country. At this point the investigation stopped, the police claiming they had done their duty, the prosecuting attorney asserting it was a case for the coroner, and the coroner affirming that it is no business of his. There is, however, a strong suspicion of child murder.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Logan Drug Co's Drug Store.

COLLINS-GREER.

Beautiful Wedding Celebrated at the Home of Hon. Creed Collins, Father of the Bride—Many Guests Present From Several States.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PENNSBORO, W. Va., June 28.—Last night the beautiful Collins' country home, "Oak Hall," near this place, was the scene of gay festivities. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Marion, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Creed Collins, to Mr. W. Homer Greer, of Cairo.

The bride is one of the most charming and popular young ladies in the state. The groom is a most excellent young man, being prominent in business and deservedly popular in social circles. Mr. Greer has also taken his place in the front rank of politics, being a member of the West Virginia delegation to the Democratic national convention to be held in Kansas City on the Fourth of July.

Crowded With Guests.

Long before the appointed hour last night, the spacious Collins' residence was crowded to overflowing with guests, among whom were friends from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia. The house was beautifully decorated with La France roses and amilies.

At precisely 8 o'clock Miss Nell Emily Schmidt, a most charming young lady, from Wheeling, entered the west drawing room on the arm of her escort, Mr. Gordon Bennett Greer, a brother of the groom. Miss Schmidt seated at the piano behind a bank of flowers played the Wedding March from the Midsummer Night's Dream of Mendelssohn. In a few moments the bridal party proceeded up the aisle to the strains of the march. First came the Rt. Rev. George W. Peterkin, D. D., Episcopal bishop of the diocese of West Virginia. The groom and his best man, Mr. Henry Brannon, Jr., of Weston, W. Va., entered by a side door and joined Bishop Peterkin at the altar, there to await the coming of the bride. The two attendants, Mr. John Brannon Bennett, of Weston, and Mr. Frank Milton Hartley, of Fairmont, next walked up the main aisle. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Anita Jeannette Collins, a younger sister of the bride, and Miss Annie Merrill Proctor, of Lebanon, Ohio. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Andrasier Virginia Greer, of Ripley, W. Va. Miss Greer is a sister of the groom. And last, but not least, came the bride leaning on the arm of her father.

The ceremony, which was as beautiful as it was solemn and impressive, was read while the music of the "Sweetest Story Ever Told" floated upon the air. Immediately after the marriage the party moved down the aisle to the strains of the famous March from Tannhauser. The bride was preceded by Misses Mary Anita Woddel and Besse Bernette Clayton strutting roses in her pathway.

Resplendent in Her Bridal Robes.

The bride was resplendent in her bridal robes of white lace and organdie over satin. Her only ornaments were a girde of pearls around her waist and a diamond brooch, a gift of the groom, which was used to fasten the veil. She carried the Episcopal prayer book. Miss Greer, the maid of honor, was very handsome in a striking dress of white organdie with lace and satin ribbon trimmings. Miss Anita Collins, the pretty young sister of the bride, was especially attractive in French mullin and point lace. Miss Proctor was very becomingly attired in white organdie and silk with trimmings of jeweled lace and pearls. Miss Schmidt was very sweet and winsome in a gown of Parisian lawn trimmed with lace and taffeta ribbon. Each of the young ladies carried a single La France rose. The gentlemen were all attired in the conventional black.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where a five course supper was served. Immediately after the supper the bride and groom left for Parkersburg amid showers of roses and rice, and followed by the best wishes of their wide circle of friends. On their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Greer will visit Kansas City, Chicago, Detroit, Toledo, Put-in-Bay and Cleveland.

The increase of popular enthusiasm on the following subject is almost daily manifested by public expression and local endorsement. Read what this citizen says and discover the cause of the constant showering of praise which follows in the wake of Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Edward Kurtz, of No. 2220 Main street, says:

"I was so crippled at the time I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Logan Drug Company's, that I could scarcely get around, and they took all the aches and pains away. I tried many things at different times. Some one recommended Juniper berries and I took tea made from them for a whole month, but it did me no good. Doan's Kidney Pills were a great friend to me, and I can honestly recommend them to others, knowing that they will do everything that is claimed for them."
